ATTACHMENT
DISSOLVEDVida Wins Point in Defense of
Suit.Will of Mrs. Eleanor K.
Prendergast is Filed in Court.Chas. L. Hapai Let Off Without Having to Pay Temporary Alimony in Divorce Suit.

The attachment in the suit of W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd., vs. H. C. Vida was yesterday dissolved by Judge De Bolt after a hearing on defendant's motion to that end. Smith & Lewis appeared for plaintiff, and Robertson & Wilder for defendant. The suit was to recover $429.75 for goods sold and delivered and the attachment was on property on the Walkiki side of Alakea street, between Queen and Halekiau streets, and any other property of defendant found on the Island of Oahu.

J. G. Rothwell, treasurer of plaintiff, made an affidavit on attachment to the effect that defendant on December 16, 1901, mortgaged certain property in the California saloon to plaintiff for $1097.80 and other sums; that among other articles in the mortgage "were two paintings of native girls by Ewing and lunch counter," also certain barrels of whiskey; that affiant had made examination of the premises but had been unable to find the articles in question; that affiant believed defendant, in addition to removing the articles, was proceeding to sell them; that this belief had been "substantiated by the fact that since the institution of this suit a bill of sale of certain property heretofore made by H. C. Vida to William Lucas has been recorded; that since filing of said suit the affiant has discovered some of the articles missed as aforesaid, at the Hale Mau Mau or Cobweb saloon on Alakea street, which the affiant is informed the defendant H. C. Vida has sold to one William Lucas. On his motion to dissolve the attachment, Vida made affidavit utterly denying both the alleged concealment and the alleged disposing of property. The motion itself alleged irregularities in the form of attachment.

A FOOLISH OLD IDEA.

It was once thought that a medicine was all the more beneficial for having a nasty taste and smell. We now know that such an idea is perfect nonsense. There is no more reason why medicine should offend the senses than why food should do so. Therefore, one of the greatest chemical victories of the past few years is what we may call the redemption of cod liver oil. Everybody knows what a vile taste and smell this drug has in its natural state. No wonder most people declare they would rather suffer from disease than take cod liver oil, and the emulsions are quite as foul and abominable as the plain oil, no matter what may be alleged to the contrary. Now it is one of nature's laws that a medicine which disgusts the nose and the palate, and also sickens the stomach, can have no good effect as a medicine, because the system cries out to be delivered from it. In WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the desired miracle is wrought, and we have the valuable part of the oil, without the other. This effective modern remedy is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. The palate accepts it as it does sugar, confectionary or cream. Taken before meals it goes to the very secret stronghold of digestive disorders: prevents and cures Nervous Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Throat and Lung Troubles and all diseases due to impurity of the blood. Dr. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with, I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults. Effective from the first dose. Sold by all chemists.

THE TEST THAT TELLS

You Can Get All the Convincing Proof You Want by Reading Honolulu Papers.

When the reader wants any article of value he naturally prefers to deal with some one he can depend upon. If mixed up in any law suit, a good, responsible lawyer is generally the first necessity sought.

If lost on a prairie, directions from a settler could be relied upon; those from a stranger would be doubted.

The test that tells the tale of merit is the test of friends and neighbors. Honolulu people endorse Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

Can you ask for better evidence? Read this case:

Mr. James C. Stevens, of this city, informs us: "I was troubled with an ache in the small of my back for a long time, and such was the condition of things until I tried some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, which I obtained at the Hollister Drug Co's store. A short treatment gave me the desired relief, and I am satisfied that they are a good remedy for backache and deserve to be recommended."

Mr. Stevens is one of our own citizens. Is not such testimony stronger than that of someone living in the States?

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

a petition for probate of the will of his wife, Eleanor Kekoaikiwaikalani Prendergast, who died in Honolulu on December 5, 1902, leaving real estate in the Territory of Hawaii, valued at $10,900 and personal estate at $2,123.60. Petitioner is named in the will as devisee and legatee, besides being nominated as executor. He asks for temporary letters of administration especially for the purpose of collecting a fire claim award of $1823.60.

The will was executed on May 17, 1902, in presence of Mary K. Tibbets and Wm. Mossman, Jr. In bequeathing her entire estate to her husband, the testator says: "It is my chief concern that all my just debts, both secured and unsecured, shall be fully paid and discharged." She directs that whatsoever property is remaining after payment of her debts is to be bequeathed by her husband "on or before his death" unto such one or more of their children as he might designate by will. It is her wish that her husband serve as executor of her will without giving any bond.

The children are: Mary N., daughter, aged nine; Eleanor K., daughter, aged eight, and Leonore N. K., son, aged four years.

Judge De Bolt yesterday morning heard the motion for temporary alimony, etc., in the divorce case of Annie Hapai vs. Charles L. Hapai. Henry Hogan appeared for libellant, the libellee being present without counsel. After Mrs. Hapai and Mrs. Annie Benoit were called for the libellant and Charles L. Hapai testified on his own behalf, counsel for the libellant waived temporary alimony and counsel fees.

The court ordered the libellee to pay $15 accrued costs within ten days, also to pay costs further accruing, and to deliver to libellant forthwith all clothing and other personal effects belonging to her, together with the marriage certificate. He was further ordered not to dispose of any of the property then in his possession until the final determination of the divorce proceedings.

It appears from the complaint that the parties were married at Hilo on February 1, 1897, and have lived in Honolulu for three years past. They have no children. From the last of the year 1901 the complainant alleges she was subjected to cruel treatment from her husband, consisting of the application of abusive and foul language to her and of frequent beatings with his fists. He committed all such offenses in the presence of others on different occasions, the complaint setting forth names and places with the other particulars. Hapai, who is a boyish-looking person for a man six years married, had a habit of smashing crockery upon wall and floor when taken with his abusive freaks, according to his wife's chapter of sorrows given under oath in her complaint. Mrs. Hapai entered the Queen's hospital for an operation in May last, and since her discharge therefrom has been living with friends in Liliha street.

PROBATE MATTERS.

D. W. Anderson petitions for letters of administration on the estate of Daniel O'Leary, who died intestate leaving $200 in the Bank of Hawaii, $14.05 cash and a few personal effects of no value. The heir known to the petitioner is Mrs. Margaret O'Leary, residing at 17 Green street, Cork, Ireland. Judge Gear has signed an order confirming the sale of the Kaalawai property of the late Antone Rosa at public auction to C. A. Long, trustee, for $6,000. The order is on petition of John F. Colburn, executor, joined in by Helen N. Rosa, widow.

The German ship Atlantic sailed from Valparaiso for Honolulu on August 17th, after being repaired.

A CHARGE OF FRAUDWoman Claims She Was Cheated on Fire Claim.

Kamakaulani Woolsey in a suit for a bill accounting makes some serious charges against Ching Lum, whom she says has collected a fire claim and refused to pay her half as promised.

The plaintiff alleges that in July, 1898, she leased certain premises from the defendant for a term of fifteen years. In January, 1900, certain buildings on the leased land were destroyed by a fire caused by the order of the Board of Health in attempting to suppress the plague. She further alleges that as she was about to file a claim before the fire claims commission for the value of said buildings Ching Lum agreed to maintain and approve the claim, provided she allowed him to file it in his own name, and he also promised to pay to her one half of the amount of the award. Thereafter the commission made an award of $965 which it is alleged the defendant collected and still retains. Further the plaintiff alleges "that after said respondent had collected said moneys upon said award complainant requested said respondent to account for and pay to complainant her share thereof, but said respondent fraudulently and deceitfully repudiated his said agreement and fraudulently refuses to pay to complainant her share of said moneys or any portion thereof."

NEW BUILDINGS
AT HIGH SCHOOL

Plans drawn by Architect Pinkham are on view in the Education office for two new buildings to be erected in the High School premises. One is a two-story wooden structure for the Commercial school to occupy the site of the old cottage now housing that institution. Its style is something like that of a Colonial mansion, with veranda and balcony in the middle of the front. The ground dimensions are 51 feet by 34 feet and there are two classrooms on each floor.

An annex to the High School, the subject of the second plan, is to be a single story building in two sections joining at right angles. One section has three, and the other two classrooms, a passage from the entrance dividing the two sections and aligning with one wing of the veranda along the inside of the sections. This building is to occupy the site of the janitor's cottage, an antiquated fabric.

The estimated cost of the Commercial School building is $4,000, and that of the High School annex $5,000, meaning both fully equipped. Construction will await territorial loan funds.

Is your Hair worth One Dollar?

If so, buy a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide and stop that dandruff that is slowly but surely rendering you bald.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE is the only preparation on the market that really will stop it, for it is the only one that kills the microbe at work on the hair root, thus destroying the cause and consequently removing the effect.

One trial will convince you, the same as it has this "doubting Thomas":

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Dec. 1, '90. When I bought that bottle of Herpicide a few months ago, like the majority of such preparations, I thought it would prove a fake, but I am happy to state that it does, and even more, than you claim for it. My hair is growing rapidly. Respectfully, ALF. R. KELLY, 2186 Divisadero St.
